Program Mission

Comprehensive Community Service, Substance Abuse & Criminal Thinking Education

The Alternative Sentencing Programs of Penobscot County and District 6, comprised of Waldo/Knox/Lincoln/Sagadahoc counties, offers first- and second-time non-violent offenders an alternative to incarceration in a county jail. A judge must sentence a defendant to the program, often upon request by the defendant or their attorney, or recommendation by the district attorney. The program is open to any Maine resident, regardless of where in the state they were convicted, or non-residents who would otherwise be serving jail time in Maine. The program cost is paid by the defendant.

The program runs 2 days for first-time offenders, and 7 days for second-time offenders.

Participants are in custody and under supervision. They will reside at a camp or school at various locations in Maine, staying in cabins, classrooms or gyms in a dormitory-style arrangement. Community service work will be done during the day, and education programs will be attended each evening. All meals will be provided and eaten as a group. Head counts will be conducted several times each day. There will be no contact with anyone outside the program during the stay except for designated times to make phone calls. No access to other electronic devices, music devices, etc. is permitted. Violations of the program rules and expectations will result in offenders being turned over to the county jail and/or returned to their own county jail.

The program is designed to meet several objectives:

- Hold individuals accountable for their previous criminal actions;
- Provide service to the community;
- Reduce costs to the community for housing inmates;
- Provide participants an opportunity to learn about the impact of their behavior on others;
- Provide participants an opportunity to review their own lives and needs regarding the use or abuse of alcohol or other drugs;
- Improve participants' self-esteem;
- Strengthen participants' decision-making skills.

Partial list of what to bring:

- Enough clothes for the stay, accounting for weather changes;
- Work boots and gloves;
- Warm bedding, towels, and toiletries;
- Prescription or over-the-counter medications in their original containers;
- Cell phone, flashlight, book or reading materials;
- Bug spray and/or sun screen;
- A complete list will be provided in the information packet.
